DAILY BRIEF
20 FEBRUARY 1967

1. Communist China

Open opposition to Mao's supporters is continuing in some areas despite the more moderate noises recently coming out of Peking.

5. Congo

The new mining and marketing agreement signed with Belgian firms on Friday will cost the Congolese more than the arrangements in effect before the mines were seized. This, however, will not keep Mobutu from touting the new agreement as a great national victory over what he calls "the gnomes of Belgian high finance."
